

All In – From death to life
Colossians 3:5-17

How does our eternal heavenly status affect our daily earthly walk?

The citizens of God's kingdom demonstrate the reality of their faith by...

- I. Putting to death worldly lifestyles Colossians 3:5-10.
 - a. In their personal lives: sexual immorality (sexual practices outside of marriage), impurity (moral corruption), passion (debilitating desire), evil desire (lustful craving), idolatrous covetousness.
 - b. In their Interpersonal communication: anger, wrath, malice, slander (blasphemy), obscene talk, lies.

- II. Putting on their new humanity Colossians 3:11-17.
 - a. Transcends race and ethnicity (Jew-Greek), religion (circumcised-uncircumcised), culture (barbarian), social status (slave-free)- Christ all in all.
 - b. In their personal lives: God's chosen ones, holy, beloved – The lifestyle of love and peace.
 - c. In their interpersonal communication: God's Word and our works.

Give this world a glimpse of heaven
By His Word in your works

From death to life

1. Is there any area in your personal life that is incompatible with the name of Christ? Are the words you speak a reflection of God's word? What is God giving you a chance to put to death so that you can experience his life?
2. Is your daily walk consistent with your identity in Christ as chosen, holy and beloved? How are you demonstrating the presence of God in your life through his word in your works?
