

Turning Points- How do we win?
1 Peter 2:11-25

What kind of life should believers live in the midst of a polarized and gospel-hostile world to win the world for Christ?

In the midst of a polarized gospel-hostile world and in spite of injustice, believers should live exemplary lives...

I. Resisting evil and promoting good 1 Peter 2:11-12.

II. Modeling leader servanthship 1 Peter 2:13-20.

- a. Humbly submitting to authority in civil society vs. 13-15.
- b. Freely pursuing everyone's welfare through their honest work vs. 16-19.

III. Imitating Christ in overcoming evil with good 1 Peter 2:21-25.

The world recognizes those who make themselves better than the rest,
Christ recognizes those who sacrifice themselves
so that others may know him better.

- 1. How does God want to redeem and reconcile the world to himself through your testimony before others? Where is God sending you to be God's grace where darkness and injustice rule?
- 2. Who in your circle of influence needs to be reconciled with God and people around through your service and love?
