

He came so that we may have abundant life.
John 10:10

Who do you call for help you when you are in the enemy's clutches?

When we are in the enemy's clutches, Jesus reveals...

- I. What will happen to us if we don't ask God for help Matthew John 10:10.
 - a. The thief: Who is pulling the strings? - the flesh, the world and the devil (cf. Eph. 2:1-3).
 - b. The thief strategy: steal, kill, destroy cf. Mark 5:1-17.

- II. What he is willing and able to do for those who call on his name John 10:10
 - a. The good shepherd and the door: Direction, protection, freedom Jn 10:9-10.
 - b. His strategy: the giving of his life so that we may live 10:11.

Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life

Without the way, there is no going; without the truth, there is no knowing; without the life, there is no living

Do you have Jesus in your life?

1. We live in a world under Satan's control. Satan is a predator patiently waiting to lure his victims into their own destruction. Make no mistake, if you are not in Jesus' hands you are in the enemy's clutches! It is a matter of time until it is too late. Why don't you ask for help today?
2. If you are already on the journey as a follower of Jesus, perhaps you are struggling with things that make it difficult to truly grasp the abundance of Jesus' life. Because Jesus is your Good Shepherd, please know he will be there for you when you need him most. Being a follower of Jesus does not mean there will not be difficulties but that in the midst of your difficulties, Jesus will be there to carry you through and take the hit for you.
