 - a. Jesus is the proof that God always keeps his Word.
 - b. Jesus walks alongside us in spite of our lack of spiritual perspicacity bringing us to his table.

- II. In spite of our fears, doubts, and troubles, Jesus has overcome death and called us to freely share his life through our life Luke 24:36-43.
 - a. Peace instead of fear.
 - b. Our mission: his suffering for our forgiveness.

To choose life -Trust and follow Jesus Christ.

1. How does Christ meet you in your daily walk in Word and Table when you worship him? Is your heart burning for his presence or has your first love grown cold?
2. What blinders does Jesus want to remove from your eyes so that you can recognize his leadership and understand his word?
3. How does Jesus want you to be a witness of the truth of his word to offer others the gift of forgiveness?
