

Christ the Lord: Our Dwelling Place
Psalm 90

In the midst of this life's brokenness and uncertainties, what can those who make God their dwelling place expect?

When God is your dwelling place...

- I. Time is an opportunity to experience eternity (Psalm 90:1-4).
- II. Weakness is an opportunity to experience God's power (Psalm 90:5-11).
- III. Life is an opportunity to experience God's redemptive plan (Psalm 90:12-17).

If home is where the heart is,
And your heart is where your treasure is,
Make God the treasure of your heart
And he will be your eternal home.

- 1. Are you living your life in light of God's eternal promises or the temporary fears and anxieties of this world? Settle in your heart today to delight yourself in the Lord so that the desires of your heart will be satisfied by him (Psalm 37:4).
- 2. Where are you in need of experiencing God's power? Invite him to intervene in your life today and see what only he can do!
